Thanks Ed,

And so it begins...good work by all involved.

Mike

Subject: Truck Convoy - update

I briefed with Nicole this morning and an intel update is below:

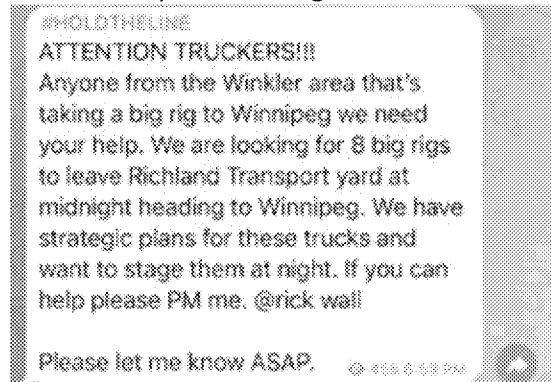

- Broadway entrance is blocked (see attached) with approximately 25 vehicles in the area. Intersection near St. Mary and Memorial may also be blocked (see attached). WPS arriving in the next hour or two.
- Nicole connected with the organizer on site ('George'), who provided assurances that officers and the building would be left alone, but added that he could not speak for everyone in their group.
- Assiniboine remains open at this time. Signage is in place, with PS positioned at the Osborne entrance and Central Services on the Kennedy side until police arrive.
- Protestors were scouting the grounds by midnight and began arriving overnight, hoping to access the grounds. When this was not possible, they blocked the Broadway access.
- Suspected Proud Boys vehicle spotted overnight (black truck, flag).
- Bear Clan was at the encampment and the camp leader (Peloquin) contacted Nicole, complaining about the 'racist' convoy.

Subject: Truck Convoy - update

Good morning,

The following was posted last night:

- Rick WALL was looking for 8 “big rigs” to meet at his business, RICHLAND TRANSPORT in Winkler. WALL was planning to get the trucks in place over night.

Winnipeg Alternative Media posted a video of the group setting up: <https://fb.watch/aYQZ608ZwF/>

Further updates:

- There will be a ball hockey game at the MB Legislature on Saturday, 2022/02/05 at 12:00 hrs.
- The group is trying to get Indigenous drummers to attend.
- No route into the city has been identified. Organizer, Shadoe DAVIS stated trucks will be arriving from different parts of the city at different times.
- Organizers mentioned a parking map will be available, instructing attendees on where to park. We will try to locate this map – it likely has not been released at this time.

The following poster was located. We do not believe that this is a new event (re date), but an increase in attendance is possible based on this poster:
